T/E Students “Win” with Harlem Wizards -- The Harlem Wizards will return Friday March 15 to play a spirited basketball game against students, teachers and administrators from every T/E school - as part of the educational foundation FLITE’s largest fundraiser of the year. Last year’s game at Conestoga High School drew a sell-out crowd of nearly 2,000 and raised $12,000 for the non-profit foundation, which funds programs benefitting T/E students from preschool through high school. There are several exciting opportunities for local businesses or individuals to sponsor this year’s Wizards game. Major Event, Concessions, Security, School Spirit and Ticket sponsorships are all available. For details on how to help FLITE help kids, go to www.flite-pa.org or email FLITE Coordinator Chris Caine at cdcaine@yahoo.com. Tickets for the Wizards game will go on sale in early February.
